

PRESS RELEASE

Magdalena Krasser promoted to attorney at law in Construction and Real Estate at KWR

Vienna, 28 August 2024

In August 2024 Magdalena Krasser (32) moved up to attorney at law on the Construction and Real Estate Team of KWR, which she has been a member of since 2016.

Magdalena Krasser specialises in construction and real estate law, with a focus on representing and advising prominent clients in and out of court in civil construction law, general matters of default and tort law as well as in the drafting and management of real estate purchase agreements.

With Magdalena Krasser's promotion to attorney at law, KWR is expanding further in one of its core areas of expertise so as to continue meeting the constantly growing demand on the part of clients and to be able to guarantee premium advisory services.

"We are delighted that Magdalena Krasser will now support KWR's Construction and Real Estate team as an attorney at law. It is our declared goal to give our lawyers the opportunity to continue their working with us as attorneys at law and to advance to partner level. Magdalena Krasser is a great asset to our team and we are pleased that we can stay by her side in her career," say KWR partners Jan Philipp Schifko and Clemens Berlakovits.

"Magdalena Krasser is a proven expert and her promotion is an asset to our Construction and Real Estate practice. Thus, we can continue to grow successfully, thanks to the great trust of our clients", says KWR Managing Partner Thomas Frad.

About the attorney-at-law:

During the final stage of her studies, Magdalena Krasser gained valuable experience in a renowned Viennese law firm specialising in civil construction law.

After graduating in 2015, she completed her year of practical training within the jurisdiction of the Higher Regional Court of Vienna and successfully passed the bar exam in 2019. Magdalena Krasser is married and has two children.
