

PRESS RELEASE

Florian Weisgram promoted to attorney-at-law on the Real Estate and Construction Team of KWR

Vienna, 25 February 2025

Florian Weisgram LL.M., BSc, CREA (30) has been promoted to lawyer in KWR's Real Estate and Construction Team, which he joined last year.

Florian Weisgram specialises in real estate law, focusing on complex real estate transactions and advising on tenancy and housing law.

With Florian Weisgram's promotion to attorney-at-law, KWR is expanding one of its core areas of expertise in order to further guarantee the highest level of advisory services for the steadily increasing number of clients.

"I am delighted that Florian Weisgram will now be supporting KWR's Real Estate and Construction Team as an attorney-at-law. With his substantive expertise and goal-oriented approach, Florian Weisgram is a great asset to our team and part of our success story. We are very pleased to be able to accompany him on his further career path," said KWR partner Jan Philipp Schifko.

"Florian Weisgram's promotion represents a gain for our real estate and construction practice, both from a professional and, above all, from a human perspective. We can continue to grow successfully thanks to the great trust of our clients. It is our firm objective to offer our lawyers the best opportunities to continue their working with us as attorneys-at-law and to be able to advance to partner level. The battle for the best talent in our industry is greater than ever. We are therefore very pleased that Florian Weisgram has decided to join our firm and that we have gained yet another great talent with huge development potential for our ranks," says KWR partner and spokesman Clemens Berlakovits.

About the attorney-at-law:

Florian Weisgram has been with KWR since 2024 and was promoted to attorney-at-law in 2025. He specialises in real estate law. Prior to joining, he worked with a renowned business law firm covering the same area of expertise.
